SYSPRO ERP Engaging User Experience

Boost Productivity and Accelerate User Engagement

For Manufacturers and Distributors including:
Automotive Parts and Accessories ▪ Electronics ▪ Fabricated Metal ▪ Food and Beverage ▪ Industrial Machinery and Equipment ▪ Packaging ▪ Plastics and Rubber ▪ And many more.

The Challenge

- ERP software that fails to take the needs of end-users into account is unlikely to be rapidly adopted
- Users feel overwhelmed by too much information and complex user interfaces
- The consumerization of IT devices has changed the expectation of the user in interacting with technology
- Users need access to all the tools that are relevant for them to perform, even when they are on the move
- Effectively communicating and collaborating across the entire organization and across locations

The Solution

- SYSPRO ERP's engaging, intuitive, self-explanatory, and easy-to-use platform fosters collaboration and empowers users in their daily operations
- Users have access to a single customizable and personalized workspace with all the complete tools, actionable insights, and information needed to perform their role efficiently and effectively
- SYSPRO answers the needs of the modern workforce by incorporating a familiar social media-type interface on which to interact with colleagues, customers, and suppliers
- SYSPRO provides choice in how you would like to engage depending on your role, operational need, movement, location, or preference. Choose to use the rich windows UI, the engaging web interface, or mobile-style, touch-friendly interface.

The Benefits/What You Can Do:

- Increase productivity with an engaged and empowered workforce
- Accelerate user uptake with a system that is engaging and easy to use
- Create a satisfying and rewarding work environment
- Provide your workforce with all the relevant information and tools they need, when they need it
- Facilitate enterprise-wide collaboration and seamless communication between colleagues, customers and suppliers
- Choose how you want to engage, 24/7, on any device or platform, from any location
